

The Daily Courant.

Wednesday, January 15. 1707.

London, January 15.

Yesterday arriv'd from Holland the Mail of Friday last.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Jan. 22.

Venice, Jan. 7.

THE Communication between Cremona and Mantua is quite cut off. 'Tis said the Garrison of Mirandola begin to be in great Want of Provisions, and that they have offer'd to surrender to the Imperialists, on Condition to be safely conducted to Mantua. The Germans who at Distance block up Cremona, have their Head-Quarter at Buzolo; and 'tis rumour'd General Medavi has sent an Officer from Mantua to Milan, to propose to Prince Eugene certain Conditions on which the French are willing to Retire out of Italy. Lieutenant General Langalerie is drawing towards Sabionetta in Order to attack it. 'Tis advis'd from Modena, that 18 Cannon, 6 Mortars, a great Number of Cannon Bullets, and other Ammunition, arriv'd there the 2d of this Month; and that 'twas propos'd to have the Batteries ready to fire the 6th; so that we quickly expect to hear of a Breach being made in the Wall of that Castle, and its Surrender o' Course. Lieutenant Colonel Locatelli who surpriz'd and took Ostiglia, is march'd with 500 Horse towards Governolo, to possess himself of that Post likewise.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Jan. 21.

Roveredo, Jan. 9. They write from Mantua, that the Duke of that Name is preparing to go to Venice to pass the Carnival there, but that many take this for a decent Pretence to leave Mantua for good and all. The 30th of last Month the Equipage of the Duke of Orleans pass'd through Brescia, having a Passport from Prince Eugene: 'Tis reported the Imperial Hussars have taken in the Plain of Medolia 10 Horses and 3 Mules of that Equipage, under Pretext that the Passport mention'd no more than 20 Persons and 20 Horses; but 'tis believ'd they will be commanded to restore them.

Milan, Jan. 8. The 6th Instant Count Visconti took Possession of the Chancellorship of this City. We have Advice from the Borders of the Venetian Territories, that the Castle of Modena defends itself still, and that the Governour has caus'd a good Number of Falcines to be made, to be us'd on Occasion. The Duke of Savoy has given Order for enlarging the Castle of Cezal, and make it stronger than it was formerly. His Royal Highness has already 15000 Foot and 4000 Horse of his own Forces, and causes more to be levied daily: 'Tis talk'd at Turin, that he designs to open the Campaign with the Siege of Suza. The Attack of our Castle is put off to the 15th Instant. Prince Eugene is not yet set out from hence for Turin.

Leipsich, Jan. 3. King Stanislaus having already taken Leave of the King of Sweden, will shortly set out for Poland. Count Zinzendorf has promis'd on the Part of the Emperour, that he shall find Quarters ready in his Passage through Silesia: He has likewise intimated, that his Imperial Majesty will make no Difficulty to acknowledge him. The Count de Tarlo, who was taken Prisoner with the Waywod of Kiow by the Starost Smigielski, is arriv'd here unexpectedly. He reports, that M. Smigielski had not only set them at Liberty, with all the other Polish Prisoners he had taken, but has likewise declar'd for King Stanislaus, with all the Troops he commands, without demanding any other Reward than to be forgiven and receiv'd into Favour, which he has promis'd to come and ask in Person, without waiting to be assur'd of it beforehand. On this Occasion he has made Prisoners 150 Muscovites that guarded the Poles; and having in his Way surpriz'd and taken 3 Muscovite Generals, he deliver'd them to the Swedish Garrison in Polesnia. The Party of King Stanislaus is considerably augmented by the coming over of this General, and of General Brand who with 6000 Men has likewise submitted. This unlook'd for Change, has as much discourag'd the averse Faction, who look'd upon the said 2 Generals as their best Support. The Muscovites are not a little alarm'd at it. What made M. Smigielski change his Party, was the Violence with which Prince Menzikoff would have taken from him his Prisoners, whom he design'd to present to the Czar himself.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Jan. 20.

Leipsich, Jan. 12. The Princes James and Constantine Sobieski are gone to Olau, in Silesia, whence they will proceed to Vienna: 'Tis said the Emperour has conferr'd the Government of Stiria on Prince James, on his Promise not to concern himself directly nor indirectly in the Affairs of Poland. King Augustus's Life-Guards of Gentlemen, are arriv'd in this Country from Poland; and 'tis said the rest of the Saxon Troops are coming likewise from Poland, and that most of them are already arriv'd in Lusatia. General Smigielski is not come hither as was reported; but 'tis certain he has seiz'd some Muscovite Officers and sent them to Polesnia. They write from Cracow, that the Upper Treasurer of Poland was suddenly expected there, to order Lodgings to be fitted up for K. Stanislaus.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Jan. 22.

Dresden, Jan. 14. Letters from Leipsich import, that the King of Sweden being come thither from Alt-Ranstad, had had a long Conference in private with King Augustus. The Swedes demand Contributions to the middle of April, to the Sum of 1900000 Rixdollars: The Deputies of the States are consulting how to borrow this great Sum on the Credit of the Government, the Inhabitants being unable at present to pay any more Taxes; but 'tis hop'd this Demand may be moderated, especially if King Augustus would speak to the King of Sweden about it, which he has not yet thought advisable for himself to do. The King of Sweden having deliver'd to King Stanislaus the Act of Abdication of the Crown of Poland, 'tis said the latter will forthwith be going to that Kingdom, and that he will be conducted thither by a Detachment of Swedes. The Creatures of King Stanislaus pretend they will not acknowledge the Primate of Poland, but we are inform'd he has been offer'd to be confirm'd in that Dignity.

Dignity, on Condition he come over with all his Adherents to King Stanislaus's Party. The Count de Monasterole Minister of the Elector of Bavaria, and the Secretary of the French Minister M. de Bonacq, are arriv'd in the King of Sweden's Quarters. M. Jessen is come to Leipstick on the part of the King of Denmark, and has had Audience of King Augustus.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Jan. 21.

Hambourg, Jan. 14. To Day the Electors Dowager of Saxony is to set out from Rensberg with the Electoral Prince, to return to Dresden. The last Advices from Saxony say, that King Augustus will by no Means have a personal Interview with King Stanislaus: And that all the Letters from Poland confirm, that the Party form'd there against King Stanislaus, persist in their Resolution to elect a new King.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Jan. 22.

Warsaw, Jan. 5. Prince Wiesznowski has issued circular Letters inviting the Nobility of Poland to hold a Council at Grodno: And as soon as the Czar of Muscovy comes to Zolddiew, a great Council will be held there; and 'tis not doubted that there a new Election of a King will be made.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Jan. 22.

Paris, Jan. 17. Letters from Pampelona and Bayonne advise, that the Marquis de Sadava had taken by Storm the little Town of Exea in Arragon, put all the Inhabitants as well as the Garrison to the Sword, and plunder'd and burnt the Houses: And that the Chevalier de Pons advancing near to Saragossa, was fallen upon by the Enemy, who kill'd 350 of his Men; and that further Particulars of that Action were expected. 'Tis rumour'd in this City, that last Night an Express from Madrid arriv'd at Versailles, with Advice that the Queen of Spain was 2 Months gone with Child. 'Tis given out here, that Catalonia will be enter'd by 3 several Bodies of Troops of the two Crowns; and that the Forces which are to march to Roussillon are design'd to be at their Rendezvous there the Beginning of next Month. Advice is come, that the Count de Villars having been forc'd by contrary Wind to the Island of S. Margaret, sail'd from thence again the 22d of last Month, for Port Mahon, with 3 Men of War and 7 or 8 Transports having on board some Land Soldiers and Provisions.
